SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of Ten Years.

The defendant must report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the Court.

- ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in the state where the defendant resides, works, or is a student, as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution, it is a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without permission of the court or probation officer;
- 2) the defendant shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency directed by the court or probation officer;
- 3) the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) the defendant shall support his or her dependants and meet other family responsibilities;
- 5) the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training or other acceptable reasons;
- 6) the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment;
- 7) the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- 8) the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- 10) the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer;
- 11) the defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court; and
- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISED RELEASE

- 14) Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §16913(a), Defendant shall register, and keep the registration current, in each jurisdiction where he resides, where he is employed or is a student. For initial registration purposes only, the defendant shall also register in the jurisdiction where he was convicted, if that is different from the jurisdiction of his residence. If the state of residence is not accepting sex offender registrations pursuant to SORNA and unable to accept the defendant's registration, the defendant must maintain contact with state registration authorities and his probation officer to determine when such registration can be accepted. The duty to register may continue after the expiration of the defendant's federal supervision, and any existing duty to register under state law is not suspended and will remain in effect until the state implements SORNA. If the defendant's supervision transfers to another federal district, the defendant's duty to register pursuant to SORNA shall be governed by that district's policy and the laws of that state.

15) Defendant shall not view or possess material, videos or computer files containing sexually explicit conduct as defined by 18 U.S.C. §§ 2256(2)(A) and (B).

16) The defendant shall participate in a sex offender treatment program, to include a sex offender risk assessment, psychosexual evaluation and/or other evaluation as needed. Defendant shall be subject to periodic polygraph examinations at the discretion and direction of the probation officer and at the defendant's expense. Defendant shall follow the rules and regulations of the sex offender treatment program as implemented by the probation office. Defendant shall sign all necessary authorization forms to release confidential information so that treatment providers, probation officers, polygraph examiners and others (as necessary) are allowed to communicate openly about the Defendant and his relapse prevention plan.

17) Defendant's residence and employment shall be pre-approved by the probation officer and in compliance with state and local law.

18) Defendant shall have no contact with any minor children unless approved by the Court. The term "contact" extends to forms of communication such as mail, telephone, and other forms of electronic communication. This provision does not include persons under the age of 18 such as ticket vendors, cashiers, waiters, etc., with whom Defendant must deal in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services. Defendant shall be prohibited from loitering where minors congregate, such as playgrounds, arcades, amusement parks, recreation parks, sporting events, shopping malls, public swimming pools, etc.

19) Defendant is required to install software to monitor computer activities on any computer Defendant is authorized to use, at his own expense. The software may record any and all activity on the Defendant's computer, including capturing keystrokes, application information, internet use history, email correspondence, and chat conversations. This software will be checked on a random basis. Defendant has no expectation of privacy regarding computer use or information stored on the computer if monitoring software is installed, and he understands and agrees that information gathered by said software may be used against Defendant in subsequent court actions regarding Defendant's computer use and conditions of his supervision. Defendant must warn others of the existence of the software program. Defendant is prohibited from attempting to remove, tamper with, or alter or circumvent in any way the software program. Defendant must comply with the rules set forth in the computer monitoring participation agreement.

20) Defendant shall submit and/or surrender any media device, to which he has access and/or control, to a search based on reasonable suspicion of contraband, or evidence of a violation of the conditions of his supervision. A media device is defined as, but is not limited to, any device which is capable of accessing the Internet, storing images, text, or other forms of electronic communication.

- C ☐ Payment in equal installments of $ over a period of , to commence days after the date of this judgment; or
- D ☐ Payment in equal installments of $ over a period of , to commence days after release from imprisonment to a term of supervision; or
- E ☐ Payment during the term of supervised release will commence within (e.g., 30 or 60 days) after release from imprisonment. The Court will set the payment plan based on an assessment of the defendant's ability to pay at that time; or
- F ☒ Special instructions regarding the payment of criminal monetary penalties:
- ☒ While incarcerated in the Bureau of Prisons, the Defendant shall pay at least $25.00 per quarter toward his monetary obligation if assigned a non-UNICOR or grade 5 UNICOR job; or at least 50% of his monthly pay if assigned a UNICOR grade 1-4 job.

Within thirty days of the commencement of the term of supervised release, the Defendant shall pay any remaining balance due on his obligation at a rate of at least $10 per month. The Court will reassess the Defendant's ability to pay from time to time upon the probation officer's recommendation or the Defendant's petition to reassess his ability to pay.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during imprisonment. All criminal penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the Clerk of the Court.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.
